

CAREERS IN YOUR COMMUNITY EVENT AT UPMC MERCY

CAREER EVENT

Are you looking to leverage your unique skills to build a sustainable career with a well-respected organization? UPMC Mercy is hosting a career fair in partnership with the Builders Guild of Western PA and Mascaro Construction.

Join us on Friday, September 13 to learn more about job opportunities in your community in areas like health care, construction, and skilled trades. You'll be able to meet and network with representatives from UPMC, the Builders Guild, and Mascaro Construction and learn more about the many career opportunities available.

Whether you're ready to launch into a new career or just looking to explore, we can't wait to see you there!
